

A Survey of Significant Statues and Carvings in the United States of America*

(Height calculations do not include pedestals or support structures.)

Statues of Christ in the US (above 50 ft.)

Christ of the Ozarks – Eureka Springs, AK (1966)	65.5 ft.
King of Kings – Monroe, OH (2004, destroyed by lightning, 2010)	62 ft.
Lux Mundi – Monroe, OH (replacement for King of Kings, 2012)	52 ft.

Monumental Statues and Carvings in the US (above 50 ft.)

Statue of Liberty – New York Harbor, NY (1886)	151 ft.
Confederate Monument – Stone Mountain, GA (1923-1972)	90 ft.
Our Lady of the Rockies – Butte, MT (1985)	88.6 ft.
Head of Crazy Horse – Black Hills, SD (begun in 1948)	87 ft.
USMC Iwo Jima War Memorial – Quantico, VA (1954)	68 ft.
Heads of Mount Rushmore – Black Hills, SD (1941)	60 ft.
“Dignity” Indigenous Indian Statue – Chamberlain, SD (2016)	50 ft.
Jolly Green Giant Statue – Blue Earth, MN (1979)	50 ft.

Other Significant US Statues (under 50 ft.)

Paul Bunyan and Babe the Blue Ox – Klamath, CA	49 ft./35 ft.
Atlas Holding up the World – Rockefeller Center, NYC (1937)	45 ft.
William Penn Statue – Philadelphia City Hall, PA (1894)	37 ft.
Immaculate Heart / Sacred Heart – Sioux City, IA (1993/1999)	33 ft./30 ft.
Angel of the Resurrection – Phila. 30 th St. Train Station, PA (1953)	28 ft.
“Spirit of Detroit” – Woodward Ave., Detroit, MI (1958)	26 ft.
Our Lady of the Mountain – Natl. Shrine Grotto, Emmitsburg, MD (1964)	25 ft.
Statue of Freedom – US Capitol Building, Wash. DC (1862)	19.5 ft.
Virgin Mary – Golden Dome, Univ. of Notre Dame, IN (1865)	19 ft.
Thomas Jefferson – Jefferson Memorial, Wash. DC (1943)	19 ft.
Abraham Lincoln (seated) – Lincoln Memorial, Wash. DC (1922)	19 ft.
St. Joan of Arc (on horseback) – New Orleans, LA (1972)	13 ft.
Angel Moroni – Mormon Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, UT (1893)	12.5 ft.
Lions “Patience and Fortitude” – New York Public Library, NYC (1911)	12 ft.
Christ of the Ohio – Troy, IN (1956)	11.4 ft.
“The Duke” – John Wayne Orange County Airport, CA (1982)	9 ft.
“Rocky” – Philadelphia Museum of Art, PA (1980)	8.6 ft.

*Those not yet torn down by BLM radicals. This list aims to highlight some of the country’s better-known statues but is not an attempt to be comprehensive.